You must submit your person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, effects, computer, electronic communications devices, and any data storage devices or media, to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any federal probation officer, or any other law enforcement officer from whom the Probation Office has requested assistance, with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release or unlawful conduct by you. CAUSE

The defendant is agreeable with these modifications and has signed attached Probation Form 49, Waiver of Hearing to Modify Conditions. These conditions are being recommended by the U.S. Probation Office in consideration of the defendant's instant offense conduct and his personal characteristics. Additionally, they serve the statutory sentencing purposes of deterrence, public protection, and rehabilitation, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3553(a)(2)(B)-(D). These conditions also enable the probation officer to satisfy the statutory requirements to: keep informed as to the conduct and condition of the defendant; report the defendant's conduct and condition to the sentencing court; and aid the defendant and bring about improvements in his conduct and condition, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3603(2)-(3).

Prob 12B
(rev. 09/21)

A condition requiring the defendant provide financial disclosure may help the probation officer deter and detect economic crimes and verify and monitor employment. Additionally, this defendant has a criminal history which includes Grand Larceny and Petit Larceny.

A search condition is necessary based upon the underlying offense which involved the defendant possessing a firearm, the defendant's criminal history which includes Arson and Promoting Prison Contraband, his history of noncompliance while on supervision, and to ensure compliance with the other conditions of supervision.

Respectfully submitted,
